

New Organic Rosé Wines Have Landed

We're gearing up for rosé season with a new selection of fresh vintage organic rosé wines. Our delicious 2019 organic rosé wines come from Argentina, Austria, Spain, France and Italy. Each one is unique and perfect for "La Vie en Rosé" – best translated as "looking at life through rose colored glasses-wine glasses that is!

Les Hauts de Lagarde Bordeaux Organic Rosé – France – a delicious blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Malbec, from Entre-Deux-Mers. This beautifully dry, yet fruity rosé has soft fruit tannins with a savory finish. Enjoy with appetizers, poultry, pork and grilled fish.

Inkarri Organic Rosé – Argentina – An Organic and Biodynamic Rose from Agrelo, Mendoza. Bright color and light, fresh body. Delicate flowers aromas (rose petal) with a juicy fruity touch. Elegant and crispy, nice complexity and a dry, clean finish.

Tarantas Sparkling Bobal Organic Rosé – Spain – DO Utiel-Requena, made with 100% Bobal. Very vibrant raspberry pink color. Elegant aromas of strawberry and floral notes. On the palate it is well structured, fresh and fruity. Great with Salads, seafood and rice dishes, pasta and white meat.

Biokult Zweigelt Organic Rosé – Austria – This certified Biodynamic wine is made with 100% Zweigelt. It's got a delightful strawberry, kiwi, melon nose, with a tangy and dry cranberry with lemon rind finish. Pair with seafood, fish, noodles, rice, poultry and light meat dishes.

Biokult Organic Rosé Secco – Austria – Delicate, leesy, savory aromas and flavors of toast nut bread, strawberry, tomato concasse, nougat, and limestone with a supple, vibrant, petillant, dryish light-to-medium body and a smooth, compelling, medium-length. Goes well with pasta, light meat, risottos and cheese.

Biokult Naken -Austria – Following historic traditions, the grapes are processed as they would be for red wine, fermented on the skins for several days. The result is a beautiful and delicate orange-rosé color with a higher concentration of tannins and structure and creamy body.

Paloma Rose – Italian Organic Rose Secco – Italy – Fresh, fragrant cherry nose. Elegant bubbles with red fruit and rose notes. Enjoy as an aperitif, with charcuterie and sautéed vegetables; grilled fish; light desserts.

All of these wines are Made with 100% organically grown grapes, and are vegan. Coming soon to fine retailers and restaurants near you, so you too can have Organic Rosé All Day!
